On the West Coast, Yummy Cupcakes boasts gourmet, made-from-scratch cupcakes in more than 110 flavors, including Peach Cobbler, Rocky Road, and Pink Lemonade. In March 2004, owner Tiffini Soforenko took a leap of faith and left the corporate world to follow her passion for baking. For the first year, Yummy Cupcakes operated as a small commercial kitchen, serving these amazing cupcakes only for special events or for delivery to local clients. The demand for Yummy Cupcakes on the west side of Los Angeles grew so that another bakeshop was opened near the beach in Santa Monica. The menu rotates with new flavors monthly, but the famous Vanilla Happy Day and Fudge Yummy Cake are always available. The shop, on Magnolia Boulevard in Burbank, California, is designed to make guests feel as though they have stepped right into the kitchen – all baking, frosting and decorating is done right in front of you.
